Regarding: United States v. Brennerman
District Court Case No. 17 CR. 337 (RJS)
MOTION FOR COMPASSIONATE RELEASE EVIDENCE

Dear Judge Sullivan:

Defendant Pro Se Raheem Jefferson Brennerman ("Brennerman") respectfully submits this motion with appended evidence together (the "Motion") in reliance on his Constitutional rights, applicable law and federal rule and will move this Court before Honorable Richard J. Sullivan, United States Circuit Judge, at Thurgood Marshall U.S. Courthouse, 40 Foley Square, New York, New York 10007 for an order directing the prosecutors, United States Attorney Office for the Southern District of New York to obtain and present to the Court and Brennerman (a.) evidence of Brennerman's interaction with Morgan Stanley in light of the surreptitious endeavor by the Court to falsely satisfy the FDIC essential element necessary to convict Brennerman for bank fraud and bank fraud conspiracy by improperly supplanting a non-FDIC insured institution, Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, LLC "MSSB" (which Government presented as Government Exhibit - GX1-57; GX1-57A; GX529; GX1-73 during trial as evidence of Brennerman`s interaction with Morgan Stanley (see 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. no. 167)) with a FDIC insured institution, Morgan Stanley Private Bank "MSPB" (even though Government presented no evidence of Brennerman`s interaction with MSPB (see appended evidence at "Exhibit C" underlined for clarity)), in an endeavor to wrongly convict and imprison Brennerman; (b.) the pertinent evidence mainly the ICBC (London) plc underwriting file relating to the transaction between ICBC (London) plc and The Blacksands Pacific Group, Inc., in light of the arguments presented within the appended evidence (correspondence dated January 22, 2021 and evidence). Brennerman requires the evidence highlighted above to present a comprehensive Compassionate release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. Section 3582(c)(1)(A) as directed by the Court in its order (at 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. no. 253)

On January 22, 2021, Brennerman submitted via electronic mailing at Temporary_Pro_Se_filing@nysd.uscourts.gov to the Clerk of Court for the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, correspondence with respect to his Covid-19 infection and other issues for the record in an endeavor to compel the Court to order evidence which he requires for his pleadings. On February 2, 2021, the Court (Sullivan, J.) (at 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. no. 253) through an order refused to docket the correspondence and relied on an erroneous assumption that the appended correspondence and evidence dated January 22, 2021 was an endeavor by Brennerman to supplement his appellate record. Brennerman emphatically asserts that such assumption is erroneous because this instant motion from which Brennerman seeks affirmative relief differs significantly from previous relief sought. This instant motion and relief sought is made in reliance on the Due Process, Brady and Constitutional rights. Moreover, federal rule and applicable law mandates that the Clerk of Court shall docket all submissions to the Court irrespective of its nature.

Given the significance of the issues cited within the appended evidence (correspondence and evidence dated January 22, 2021) and in light of the urgency that Covid-19 presents to Brennerman. Brennerman respectfully submits this motion and appended evidence seeking affirmative relief as stated above from this Court.

Defendant Raheem Brennerman, is a pro se defendant, therefore his pleadings are generally liberally construed and held to a less stringent standard than pleadings drafted by an attorney. See Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S. 6, 9 (1980) (per curiam) ; Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976).

Brennerman respectfully submits the above and appended evidence and prays that this Court grants his request in its entirety.

Regarding: United States v. Brennerman
District Court Case No. 17 CR. 337 (RJS)
CORRESPONDENCE WITH EVIDENCE FOR THE RECORD

Dear Judge Sullivan:

Defendant Pro Se Raheem Jefferson Brennerman ("Brennerman") respectfully submits the appended record and evidence pursuant to all applicable law and federal rule in an endeavor to document his Covid-19 infection and other issues for the record.

I. COVID-19 INFECTION:

On December 17, 2020, Brennerman who is currently incarcerated at FCI Allenwood Low ("Allenwood") arising from the above criminal cases tested positive for Covid-19 and a few days later was diagnosed with Covid-19 pneumonia causing severe breathing difficulty among other Covid-19 symptoms. Brennerman suffers from diabetes and hypertension, medical conditions promulgated by the Center for Disease Control and Prevention ("CDC") that places him at a heightened risk of serious illness or death should he contract Covid-19 (A copy of the medical record is appended as "Exhibit A")

Brennerman is currently incarcerated at FCI Allenwood Low pursuant to an order of Judge Richard J. Sullivan arising from the criminal case at 17 CR. 337 (RJS). Notwithstanding, proclamation by the prosecutors that the BOP had formulated preventive measures and action plan with respect to protecting incarcerated persons from contracting Covid-19. On December 17, 2020 approximately 114 inmates out of 116 inmates residing at the same unit at FCI Allenwood Low with Brennerman tested positive for Covid-19. Thereafter, Brennerman was denied adequate care or medication and endured significant pain and suffering arising from Covid-19 with symptoms including high body temperature, severe difficulty with breathing and pneumonia, body aches, violent coughs among others.

Although Brennerman strenuously presented evidence of Constitutional violation with his conviction where he was deprived evidence which he required to present complete defense and highlighted erroneous proclamation by the Court in respect of which Morgan Stanley subsidiary he interacted with, the Court has refused to correct its errors. Brennerman has also continued to request and persuade the Court to allow him access to evidence which he requires to present a comprehensive Compassionate release motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C.S. 3582(c)(1)(A) and argue as to the 3553 factor (which the Court will consider in the adjudication of the motion) however the Court has continued to ignore him, thus Brennerman remains unjustly incarcerated and the institution where he is currently incarcerated failed to provide any medication or therapeutic treatment to Brennerman while enduring significant suffering arising from Covid-19 infection which exacerbates the Constitutional violation already suffered and highlights the deliberate indifference while the Court (Sullivan, J.) continues to wrongly convict and imprison Brennerman.

Brennerman now faces the serious possibility of a second wave of Covid-19 infection while he remains incarcerated with a much weakened immune system while the Court (Sullivan, J.) continues to deny and deprive him access to pertinent evidence for his release.

II. REQUEST FOR EVIDENCE TO PRESENT COMPREHENSIVE COMPASSIONATE RELEASE MOTION PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C.S. 3582(c)(1)(A):

Prior to contracting Covid-19, Brennerman strenuously requested and pleaded with the Court (Sullivan, J.) see 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. nos. 248, 250 to provide him with the pertinent evidence (ICBC underwriting file) which he required to present a comprehensive Compassionate release pursuant to 18 U.S.C.S. 3582(c)(1)(A) and argue as to the 3553 factors. The Court (Sullivan, J.) at 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. no. 249, 251 instead pivoted to the erroneous disposition by the Second Circuit U.S. Court of Appeals ("Second Circuit") which inaccurately stated that "the only indication that the document are extant comes from Brennerman`s bare assertion".

III. MOTION-TO-RECALL MANDATE AT THE SECOND CIRCUIT:

Brennerman has presented overwhelming evidence from the case proceedings including trial transcripts and other evidence to both the Chief Judge of the Second Circuit (Hon. Debra Ann Livingston) and Second Circuit (panel Court) in an endeavor to allow the Court to recall the mandate and correct its erroneous disposition. see Appeal Docket No. 18-3546(L), doc. nos. 211, 212, 217 and Appeals Docket No. 18-1033(L), doc. nos. 334, 335.

IV. PETITION FOR WRIT OF CERTIORARI AT THE SUPREME COURT OF U.S.:

Brennerman has also succinctly presented issues with extensive evidence to the Supreme Court of the United States ("Supreme Court") in an endeavor to document and present pertinent record (irrespective of whether certiorari is granted) at docket no. 20-6638 (arising from appeal docket nos. 18-3546(L); 19-497(Con) at the Second Circuit and 17 CR. 337 (RJS) at the U.S. District Court (S.D.N.Y.) and at docket no. 20-6895 (arising from appeal docket nos. 18-

1033(L); 18-1618(Con) at the Second Circuit and 17 CR. 155 (LAK) at the U.S. District Court (S.D.N.Y.))

V. ISSUES WITH BANK FRAUD AND BANK FRAUD CONSPIRACY (18 U.S.C.S. 1344):

Brennerman, in an endeavor to strenuously present pertinent evidence is again appending with this correspondence, evidence at 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. no. 167 which irrefutably demonstrate that Brennerman opened his account at Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, LLC ("MSSB") and interacted with Scott Stout who worked at MSSB (A copy of evidence at 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. no. 167 is appended as "Exhibit B"). This evidence from trial records directly contradict the erroneous proclamation by the Court that Brennerman interacted with the "private bank of Morgan Stanley" which was proffered by the Court (Sullivan, J.) during the hearing on November 19, 2018 when the Court denied Brennerman's motion for judgment of acquittal submitted pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 29. (A copy of excerpt from the hearing transcript is appended as "Exhibit C" and underlined for clarity). The erroneous proclamation was made in a surreptitious endeavor to falsely satisfy the FDIC essential element necessary to convict Brennerman for bank fraud (18 U.S.C.S. 1344(1)) and bank fraud conspiracy (18 U.S.C.S. 1349) by improperly supplanting a non-FDIC institution (MSSB) for a FDIC insured institution (Morgan Stanley Private Bank) where there was no evidence presented at trial to demonstrate that Brennerman interacted with Morgan Stanley Private Bank. Brennerman presented evidence at 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. no. 167 (appended as "Exhibit B") which conclusively demonstrated that he interacted with a non-FDIC insured institution. Even the erroneous disposition by the Second Circuit points to Brennerman's single telephone call with Kevin Bonbrake who worked for another non-FDIC subsidiary of Morgan Stanley. (A copy of trial transcripts at 17 CR. 337 (RJS), trial. tr. 384-385; 409; 387-388; 1057; 1059; 1060-1061 appended as "Exhibit F") Notwithstanding these overwhelming evidence, Brennerman remains incarcerated for bank fraud and bank fraud conspiracy solely because of the erroneous proclamation by the Court (Sullivan, J.)

VI. ISSUES WITH WIRE FRAUD AND WIRE FRAUD CONSPIRACY (18 U.S.C.S. 1343):

Already demonstrated through extensive submissions at appeal docket no. 18-3546(L), doc. nos. 211, 212, 217, trial transcripts from 17 CR. 337 (RJS) contradict the Court (Sullivan, J.) and Second Circuit panel Court, that the pertinent evidence (ICBC underwriting file, which documents the basis for approving the bridge finance and thus confirms "Materiality" of any representation or alleged misrepresentation) is not extant beyond Brennerman's assertion. Indeed, Government sole witness from ICBC (London) plc, Julian Madgett confirmed that the evidence (ICBC underwriting file) is/was extant and with the bank's file in London, United Kingdom (A copy of the trial transcript with Government witness, Julian Madgett, 17 CR. 337 (RJS), Trial Tr. 551-554 is appended as "Exhibit D") and the Court (Sullivan, J.) confirmed that the witness (Julian Madgett) had confirmed that the evidence (ICBC underwriting file) is/was extant with the bank's file in London, United Kingdom (A copy of the trial transcript, 17 CR. 337 (RJS), Trial Tr. 617 is appended as "Exhibit E").

The Court continues to deny request for the evidence (ICBC underwriting file) stating that the Court cannot permit indiscriminate introduction of evidence which was not presented at trial, even though during trial the Court denied Brennerman's request for the evidence (A copy of the letter motion submitted by Brennerman to request for the evidence (ICBC underwriting file) submitted at 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. no. 71 is appended at "Exhibit G") upon learning of its existence following testimony by Government sole witness from ICBC (London) plc, Julian Madgett that evidence (ICBC underwriting file) exists with the bank's file which document the basis for ICBC (London) plc approving the bridge finance and thus confirms "Materiality" of any representation or alleged misrepresentation. Further that, the Government never obtained or reviewed the evidence (ICBC underwriting file). The Court (Sullivan, J.) denied Brennerman's request for the evidence (ICBC underwriting file) which he required to present a complete defense and confront witness against him while permitting Government witness, Julian Madgett to testify as to the contents of the evidence (ICBC underwriting file) to satisfy "Materiality (an essential element of charged crime)" of any representation or alleged misrepresentation contained within the evidence (ICBC underwriting file) which was considered in the approval of the bridge finance.

VII. OTHER ISSUES:

Additionally, Brennerman has strenuously requested for a copy of his birth certificate which is/was in the Government's possession at time of trial and which Government never presented to the jury for consideration in their deliberation. Brennerman requested for this evidence (birth certificate) to present comprehensive argument in a Compassionate release motion pursuant to 18 U.S.C.S. 3582(c)(1)(A) and argue as to the 3553 factor, however the Court (Sullivan, J.) continues to ignore his request. see 17 CR. 337 (RJS), doc. nos. 236, 240, 241, 248, 250.

VIII. CONCLUSION:

In light of the above and the overwhelming evidence, Brennerman respectfully submits the appended evidence in compliance with applicable law and federal rule on record.

Re: United States v. Raheem J. Brennerman
Case No: 1:17-cr-337 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan

Defendant Pro Se, Raheem Brennerman ("Brennerman") submits additional evidence to bolster his arguments, which are succinctly highlighted in correspondences dated June 10, 2018 (see 17-cr-337 (RJS), dkt. no. 164), the June 11, 2018 and June 17, 2018 correspondences.

Brennerman submits, Government Exhibit 1-57, e-mail correspondence between Mr. Scott Stout and Brennerman, which highlights the e-mail signature of Scott Stout and the Beverly Hills, California address of Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC (not Morgan Stanley Private Bank); Government Exhibit 1-57A, the account opening form, which highlights "Morgan Stanley Smith Barney (not Morgan Stanley Private Bank)" at the top right corner of the form; Government Exhibit 1-73, e-mail between Scott Stout and Brennerman, which highlights Brennerman's alleged fraud - the perks which he became entitled to, however more important, page two of the e-mail correspondence highlights within the "Important Notice to Recipient" in relevant parts that "The sender of this e-mail is an employee of Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC ("Morgan Stanley"); Government Exhibit 529, the Morgan Stanley account statement, which highlights Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC (not Morgan Stanley Private Bank) at the bottom left corner of the bank statement cover page. Additionally Brennerman submits the profile of Mr. Scott Stout which highlights that Mr. Scott Stout worked at Morgan Stanley Wealth Management between May 2011 and November 2014, as well the announcement on September 25, 2012 by Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC stating in relevant parts that "Morgan Stanley Smith Barney is now Morgan Stanley Wealth Management.

These evidence are important to highlight that Brennerman interacted with Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC which is indisputably not FDIC insured and thus the essential element necessary to convict for bank fraud in violation of 18 United States Code Section 1344(1) and its related conspiracy - conspiracy to commit bank fraud in violation of 18 United States Code Section 1349 cannot be satisfied and Brennerman's relief for judgment of acquittal, pursuant to Rule 29 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure should be granted, and that Government failed to conduct the necessary diligence or investigation prior to indicting and prosecuting Brennerman.

Brennerman highlights the following as to the wire fraud charge and its related conspiracy. Brennerman was charged in two criminal cases - criminal contempt of court in case no. 17-cr-155 (LAK), before Hon. Judge Lewis A. Kaplan and the related fraud case in case no. 17-cr-337 (RJS), before Hon. Richard J. Sullivan, both stemming from the underlying civil case, case no. 15 cv 70 (LAK) captioned - ICBC (London) PLC v. The Blacksands Pacific Group, Inc before Hon. Judge Lewis A. Kaplan. Because the trial in the case before Judge Kaplan was scheduled ahead of that before this court, Brennerman sought to obtain the relevant ICBC London lending and underwriting file which is probative as to materiality an essential element of the charged crime of wire fraud and its related conspiracy. Because Brennerman's request to both the government and directly to ICBC (London) PLC had been denied, Brennerman sought to compel for the relevant files through U.S District Court (S.D.N.Y), since the criminal cases stemming from the ICBC (London) PLC transaction were being prosecuted at the U.S District Court (S.D.N.Y), however Brennerman's request to U.S District Court (S.D.N.Y) was denied (see 17-cr-155 (LAK), dkt. no. 76). Deprived of the relevant files necessary to cross-examine any government witness as to substance or credibility, Brennerman moved in his motion-in-limine and reply to Government's motion-in-limine, prior to trial of the related fraud charge, for U.S District Court (S.D.N.Y) to exclude the testimony of any witness from ICBC (London), because such testimony will be highly prejudicial and unfair to Brennerman as government will simply be allowed to present any witness, who will be able to say anything without corroboration and without Brennerman having the opportunity to cross-examine him as to substance or credibility, as Brennerman would not have been able to review the relevant lending and underwriting files. Moreover, he will be unable to assert his good faith defense, thus violating Brennerman's constitutional rights to a fair trial.

Even after trial, Brennerman has presented evidence to highlight that Mr. Robert Clarke (not Mr. Julian Madgett) was responsible for the relevant transaction at ICBC (London) PLC as evidenced through his affidavit in the underlying civil case at 15 cv 70 (LAK). (See copy of Robert Clarke affidavit at, (17-cr-337 (RJS), dkt. no. 164, exhibit 2). Additionally Brennerman submitted evidence - Government Exhibit 1-19 and 1-22 which highlights that Blacksands had already incurred and disbursed $6.45 million in satisfying the finance conditions of ICBC (London) PLC and that the bridge finance was agreed to replace part of those funds which Blacksands already disbursed, further that Brennerman informed both Mr. Bo Jiang and Mr. Julian Madgett at ICBC (London) PLC and ICBC (London) PLC agreed to the use of the bridge finance. (See 17-cr-337 (RJS), dkt. no. 164, exhibit 2). Among others, Brennerman submitted newly discovered evidence (see 17-cr-337 (RJS), dkt. no. 164, exhibit 3) - the 2017 ICBC (London) PLC financial and company disclosure which was made publicly available on June 6, 2018, after trial. The disclosure highlights that there was no fraud. Because ICBC (London) PLC, the alleged victim of the wire fraud and related conspiracy has made no disclosure, representation or announcement that the transaction involving Blacksands Pacific was fraudulent or that it became a victim of fraud due to the transaction with Blacksands. Notwithstanding, that ICBC (London) PLC, a financial institution and publicly traded company in United Kingdom (England and Wales) is mandated by regulations to disclose publicly, if it became a victim of fraud or became involved with fraudulent transaction. This is particularly significant, where Government never reviewed, adduced or presented the relevant ICBC London lending and underwriting files, and because Brennerman was deprived from engaging in any meaningful cross-examination of the sole witness presented by Government from ICBC (London) PLC as to credibility and substance. In addition to the fact that, the sole witness - Mr. Julian Madgett, is not a member of the credit committee responsible for approving the transaction at ICBC (London) PLC.

Thus, Brennerman submits, arguing that since Government ostensibly argued (although erroneously) that Scott Stout worked at Morgan Stanley Private Bank (instead of Morgan Stanley Smith Barney) in their opposition to his Rule 29 and 33 motion. (See 17-cr-337 (RJS), dkt. no. 149), now highlighted as an erroneous proffer by Government given the overwhelming evidence which were all available to Government. Government's credibility is questionable; further that, because Brennerman was deprived of the relevant ICBC London lending and underwriting file prior to trial and even Government concedes that it had not reviewed the files; additionally, because Robert Clarke and not Julian Madgett is/was responsible for the relevant transaction at ICBC (London) PLC as highlighted through his affidavit; additionally, because Brennerman suffered for ineffective assistance of counsel due to the conflict of interest issue, with his trial counsel; additionally, because Brennerman submitted and highlighted newly discovered evidence - the 2017 financial and company disclosure, by ICBC (London) PLC, which was filed and made public on June 6, 2018. Brennerman respectfully requests and pleads for the Court to resolve the factual dispute as to the relevant ICBC London transaction with Blacksands Pacific, as it pertains to this case, by reviewing the relevant ICBC London lending and underwriting files, especially in light of the newly discovered evidence which demonstrates that, ICBC (London) PLC, the alleged victim has not disclosed or represented that the transaction with Blacksands was fraudulent or that it became a victim of fraud through the transaction with Blacksands, which it would have had to disclose by regulation if any fraud occurred.

The above presents significant issues, because Brennerman suffered prejudicial spillover on other counts of the charged crime, due to Government's erroneous argument and presentment to the court and jury at trial. In addition, Brennerman suffered prejudice due to the conflict of interest issue with his trial counsel. Evidence submitted to date, supports, Brennerman's pleading for a new trial, pursuant to Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Brennerman submits the above and the appended evidence in addition to his submissions at (dkt. no. 164), his June 11, 2018 and June 17, 2018 correspondences, and awaits the Court's decision

MedVector's mission is to advance medicine by streamlining the clinical trial industry. We provide Pharmaceutical & Biotech companies, Contract Research Organizations (CRO) and research institutes a global patient network utilizing Telemedicine. This enables researchers to quickly identify and connect to more clinical trial candidates, exponentially improving time to market.

Once suitable candidates have been identified, MedVector connects our research clients to trial participants utilizing a state of the art, HIPAA compliant, telemedicine network, allowing them to virtually move patients to clinical trial site-locations from anywhere in the world.

Our process allows clinical trial sites (locations) to capture marketshare, creates economies-of-scale by removing redundancies in the current marketplace, creates revenue for hospitals not conducting clinical trials, gives remote populations access to cutting edge medicine, and significantly expedites the process of bringing life saving, advanced medicine to market.

Morgan Stanley's U.S. Wealth Management Business Has a
New Name Following Largest-Ever Integration in the Wealth
Management Industry

New York —

Morgan Stanley (NYSE: MS) today announced that its U.S. wealth management business, Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, has been renamed Morgan Stanley Wealth Management (MSWM).

Morgan Stanley Wealth Management is an industry leader, managing $1.7 trillion in client assets through a network of 17,000 representatives in 740 locations. Morgan Stanley on September 11 announced an agreement with Citigroup to increase its majority ownership of MSWM such that Morgan Stanley will assume full control by June of 2015, subject to regulatory approval. The business was formed in 2009 as a joint venture between Morgan Stanley and Citi's Smith Barney.

"Today, as we move under one name, we are culminating a three-year effort to integrate two outstanding franchises," said James Gorman, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Morgan Stanley. "The Smith Barney name stood for investment excellence for three-quarters of a century, and Morgan Stanley Wealth Management will provide the first-class service that has distinguished Morgan Stanley as a firm for more than 75 years. Going forward, we remain focused on being the world's premier wealth management group."

Said Greg Fleming, President of Morgan Stanley Wealth Management, "Today, we are one integrated business, with one overarching mission: to earn the trust of our clients every day through superior advice and execution. Our name has changed to reflect our integration, but our mission remains the same: We are committed to helping our clients reach their financial goals."

The broker-dealer designation for Morgan Stanley Wealth Management will remain "Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC."

Morgan Stanley Wealth Management, a global leader in wealth management, provides access to a wide range of products and services to individuals, businesses and institutions, including brokerage and investment advisory services, financial and wealth planning, credit and lending, cash management, annuities and insurance, retirement and trust services.

Morgan Stanley (NYSE: MS) is a leading global financial services firm providing a wide range of investment banking, securities, investment management and wealth management services. The Firm's employees serve clients worldwide including corporations, governments, institutions and individuals from more than 1,200 offices in 43 countries. EXHIBIT D

IBJQBREs

1 there's a grid or a table. You probably can't see it, but it's
2 a chart, and there's a column here on the far left. That's the
3 offense level column. It starts at number one and goes down to 4 level 43. The judge goes down that column until the judge gets 5 to the number that the judge found to be the offense level.

6 The judge then goes across these other columns from 7 left to right, each of which reflects a criminal history
8 category, and the judge keeps going until the judge gets to the 9 criminal history category that the judge found to be 10 appropriate. Where the judge's finger finally stops then after 11 that exercise, well, that's the range that in the view of the 12 commission that prepares this book would be appropriate.

13 I don't have to follow this book. This book is not
14 mandatory. It's advisory. But I do have to consider it, and I
15 have to make my findings under it. So we are going to spend a
16 few minutes now talking about how this book applies in this
17 case. It can be a little complicated. It can be sort of a
18 little like accounting, but it's not too hard to follow, and I
19 think the issues here are relatively straightforward and 20 understandable. So we'll pick them up. All right?

21 According to the presentence report prepared by the 22 probation department, beginning on page 6 -- there are four
23 counts of conviction here, so according to probation, Counts
24 One, Two and Three are grouped together pursuant to a different
25 section of the guidelines that says where you have crimes that

IBJQBRES

1 are distinct crimes but they all involve the same conduct, in
2 most cases you group them all together and you do an analysis
3 all together. You don't count them separately and add them up.
4 You do them together. So the conspiracy to commit bank and
5 wire fraud, the bank fraud and the wire fraud are all treated
6 together, and they're all covered by the same guidelines
7 provision, which is Section 2B1.1. That's the general fraud
8 provision under the guidelines.

9 Now, I do think, frankly, that it's worth pointing out
10 that the bank fraud calculation here I think would be quite 11 different than the wire fraud, and I guess I want to hear from 12 the parties on that. But the bank fraud here was a scheme or 13 artifice to defraud the private banking arm of Morgan Stanley
14 to enable Mr. Brennerman to get access to the perks which are 15 tangible. They're worth money, free checking among them. I
16 don't get that. And some other perks. But also to get some 17 more intangible perks, which would be access to other arms of 18 the Morgan Stanley family of entities.

19 I'm only really focused on the first category here.
20 It seems to me the first category here, there's been no
21 evidence that I've seen that suggests that was worth more than 22 $6,500 or so.

23 Mr. Roos, do you disagree?

24 MR. ROOS: I think that's right, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: You agree, OK.

IBJQBRES

1 And I assume, Mr. Tulman, you agree with that.

2 MR. TULMAN: I have no problem with that, Judge.

3 THE COURT: So, that being the case then, the base
4 offense level is 7, because the maximum sentence of bank fraud
5 is 30 years, but there's no enhancement for loss because the 6 loss amount in dollar terms for the bank fraud count did not
7 exceed $6,500.

8 Is the government arguing there are any other
9 enhancements for the bank fraud count? I didn't see any, but 10 maybe I'm wrong.

11 MR. ROOS: Well, your Honor, the PSR sets forth
12 sophisticated means.

13 THE COURT: Sophisticated means for the bank fraud?

14 MR. ROOS: It's identified as sophisticated means
15 include, like, for instance, his papering of a fake company,
16 his setting up shell entities. The government's proof at trial
17 was -- while I think your Honor is right that from the FDIC
18 institution, the potential loss to that institution was low, he 19 still used those various sophisticated means, basically, the 20 papering of a company that didn't exist in order to get access
21 to those benefits and expose the bank's potential loss. So I
22 think that enhancement would apply.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Tulman, thoughts on that?

24 MR. TULMAN: I don't know that there's anything
25 particularly sophisticated about the conduct.

IBJQBRES

1 THE COURT: Well, it does require you to create a
2 company. It might require you to incorporate a company. It
3 requires you to develop financials for that company and
4 brochures and things like that. There was a lot of evidence
5 about those things. I guess that's more sophisticated than a
6 typical situation where somebody just uses a false name when 7 they go into a bank or adds a zero to their income in a form.
8 I think it's more sophisticated than that. I think ultimately
9 it's not going to matter, the impact of that doesn't add much
10 of anything here, but I think that that argument is -- I'm 11 persuaded there has been proof of sophisticated means that by a
12 preponderance would warrant a two-level increase. So the bank
13 fraud would be at level 9, before we get to obstruction. And I
14 think that's going to be a lot lower than the wire fraud. The 15 wire fraud is what drives this here. So the wire fraud is also 16 going to be a base offense level of 7, correct?

17 MR. ROOS: That's correct, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And then there the loss amount is 19 disputed. The probation department concludes that the loss
20 amount was $20 million because that is what the defendant --
21 that was the nominal amount of the loan that he fraudulently
22 secured. He didn't get it all, but I guess the argument is 23 that he didn't have to have gotten it all to be on the hook for 24 the full $20 million. It's the loss and the intended loss, at 25 least with the conspiracy count, but probably even for the

IBJQBRs

1 substantive count, the intended loss would be relevant. So why
2 don't we talk about that.

3 The restitution amount will be lower. Obviously, it's 4 not going to be 20 million for restitution. The restitution is
5 not the driver of loss for intended loss. So the government's 6 view is this nominal amount alone of $20 million, that's the 7 fraud?

8 MR. ROOS: Your Honor, I think this is a relatively
9 conservative estimate by probation. There was plenty of proof
10 at trial that the defendant went to both the ICBC and the 11 non-FDIC insured branch of Morgan Stanley and sought out
12 considerably more --

13 THE COURT: He was trying to get $600 million. I
14 guess at one point that was what there was discussion about,
15 but you're not seeking that as the loss amount, right?

16 MR. ROOS: That's right, your Honor, although I think
17 there was evidence at trial that he intended that amount.
18 Julian Madgett testified that this bridge loan of $20 million
19 wasn't contemplated as the exclusive deal. Rather, it was sort
20 of the entree to a much larger deal that the bank was totally 21 serious about.. So, I think there actually would be a basis for 22 the Court to conclude that there was a $300 million intended
23 loss.

24 The government isn't pursuing that though, and that's 25 not what probation did. I think this is very reasonable. He

IBJQBRES

1 had a contract, something reduced to writing for $20 million.
2 Sure, the drawdown happened before the fraud was exposed was
3 approximately $5 million, but there is not only a clear
4 evidence in the trial record of intention to take $20 million
5 from the bank, but actually multiple steps taken by the 6 defendant, up to the point of entering into a contract, having
7 money transferred into an escrow account.

8 So, there is more -- as your Honor pointed out, the 9 test is not exclusively what actually was lost by the bank.
10 That's may be it for restitution, but in terms of intended
11 loss, there is more than sufficient evidence in the record to 12 conclude that $20 million is the appropriate amount.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Tulman, do you want to be heard on 14 that?

15 MR. TULMAN: Yes, your Honor.

16 The issue, as the government rightly points out, is of 17 intended loss, and what Mr. Brennerman has pointed out to the 18 Court is simply the fact that of the $20 million, as a matter
19 of English law, the $15 million was not controlled by 20 Mr. Brennerman, he would never have been able to gain access to 21 it. It was held in a pledged account to ICBC. So he could not
22 and did not intend ever to receive any of those $15 million.

23 THE COURT: Why are you saying he never intended to 24 get that money?

25 MR. TULMAN: That's right. What he maintains is that

EXHIBIT E

1 (Jury present)

2 THE COURT: Okay. Have a seat. We will now begin the 3 cross-examination of Mr. Madgett by Mr. Waller.

4 CROSS EXAMINATION

5 BY MR. WALLER:

6 Q. Good afternoon, Mr. Madgett.

7 A. Good afternoon.

8 Q. When did you say you started working for ICBC?

9 A. 2009.

10 Q. And you work for ICBC in London, correct?

11 A. Correct.

12 Q. And it is a subsidiary of a Chinese bank?

13 A. It is a subsidiary and a branch of a Chinese bank.

14 Q. ICBC London is not FDIC insured; is that correct?

15 A. You are referring to the U.S. arrangement?

16 Q. That's correct.

17 A. No, it would not be because it's an operation in the U.K.

18 Q. When your credit committee makes a decision, a credit
19 decision whether or not to give a loan or not to give a loan,
20 what sort of documentation does it produce? Does it produce a
21 memo that explains its reasons or analysis for giving a loan?

22 A. The credit committee will have a series of minutes which 23 reflects a discussion of the case in credit committee and 24 records the decision of the credit committee.

25 Q. Did you ever produce the documents from that credit

1 committee, the ones you just described, to the government?

2 MR. ROOS: Objection.

3 THE COURT: You can answer.

4 A. To my knowledge, no. But I need to state perhaps it's 5 appropriate to say this: After the loan was defaulted, the 6 internal process of the bank means that the direct relationship
7 managers who were responsible for that dialogue step away and 8 the defaulted loan is then passed to a different department.

9 So, I'm not fully aware of all aspects of what has happened to 10 the management of the loan after around April 2014.

11 Q. And when I say produced to the government, I meant to the 12 prosecutors here in this case. You understood that?

13 A. I understood that and to my knowledge, no, that has not
14 been the case.

15 Q. But ICBC did produce a lot of documents to the government,
16 correct?

17 A. All I can state is that the documents were provided to our 18 legal advisors and then our legal advisors have interacted with 19 the U.S. Attorney's office.

20 Q. Would it be fair to say that some documents that are in the 21 underwriting file for ICBC were produced to the document and 22 others were not?

23 A. Some documents will have been passed across. I do not know
24 whether or not all or some. I'm not in -- I don't have that 25 knowledge.

1 Q. Is there an underwriting file for a loan application such
2 as the one we are dealing with in this case?

3 A. There would be a credit application document which is where 4 the case for making the loan has been summarized, and that is
5 the credit application document which then goes to credit
6 committee for approval or decline.

7 Q. Do you know if that -- well who would have prepared that 8 document?

9 A. I would have been one of the main authors of that document.

10 Q. Do you know if that document was produced to the 11 government?

12 A. I do not and I wouldn't see great relevance in it, but I do
13 not know if it has gone to the government.

14 Q. Well, relevance is not really your determination, correct?

15 A. Correct, correct. Yes.

16 Q. So you don't know if it was produced to the government and 17 it certainly wasn't produced to the defense, correct, by ICBC?

18 THE COURT: Well, do you know?

19 THE WITNESS: I don't know, but I'm assuming from your 20 question that it wasn't.

21 THE COURT: Well, don't assume.

22 THE WITNESS: Okay, sorry. My apologies.

23 THE COURT: The jury knows not to assume anything from 24 a question. So, you just answer as to what you know.

25 THE WITNESS: All right.

1 BY MR. WALLER:

2 Q. Was there an answer?

3 A. Could you repeat the question, please?

4 Q. Yes.

5 Do you know if that document that we were talking
6 about was ever produced?

7 THE COURT: He answered. He said I don't know.

8 THE WITNESS: I don't know.

9 THE COURT: And then he started assuming things and 10 that's when I jumped in.

11 BY MR. WALLER:

12 Q. So the answer is you don't know?

13 A. I don't know.

14 Q. Now, you first met Mr. Brennerman in 2011, correct?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Did you meet him in person for a meeting?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. Jumeirah Carlton Tower Hotel, does that sound right?

19 A. On one occasion I met him in a hotel, yes.

20 Q. At that point when you met him I think you testified that 21 there were no firm deals that he was bringing to you at that 22 point? There were no deals that he was bringing to you, he was 23 just making an introduction?

24 A. When the initial interaction between us started, yes.

25 Q. And, do you recall when the first deal was that he brought

EXHIBIT F

1 MS. FRITZ: Your Honor, your Honor, no. We have it
2 here, but --

3 THE COURT: You haven't served it yet?

4 MS. FRITZ: We wanted to hear what your Honor said.

5 THE COURT: In any event, the witness has indicated he 6 doesn't possess the documents, so the documents are not with 7 him. He doesn't have them. According to his testimony,
8 they're in London with the bank's files that he turned over
9 once the deal went south. He certainly said he didn't review
10 them in preparation for his testimony. He doesn't possess them
11 now.

12 So, to the extent the bank is subpoenaed with a Rule
13 17 subpoena, then that would be a different issue, but I don't
14 think serving Mr. -- who is the lawyer, Mr.?

15 MR. HESSLER: Hessler, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Yes, Mr. Hessler. I'm sorry.

17 I don't think serving Mr. Hessler is adequate service
18 for purposes of the bank.

19 MS. FRITZ: Let me explain why we did it that way,
20 because initially last night, we had an ICBC subpoena drafted,
21 and the reason that we did it this way is, again, I don't
22 necessarily agree with your Honor's definition of possession.
23 I do think that Julian Madgett, I think quite plainly, has 24 access to these documents. People very rarely walk around with 25 the documents that you're asking for from them, but they do

1 Q. Is that the same title you had or position you had while
2 you were at Morgan Stanley?

3 A. My title -- my specific job title at Morgan Stanley varied
4 as I was promoted from vice president, to director, to managing
5 director, and I worked within what they called the 6 institutional securities division. My current title is 7 managing director at Lazard within what they call the financial
8 advisory division, but I'm doing substantially the same job,
9 except I'm more solely focused on mergers and acquisitions now
10 and not so much on financings, if that makes sense.

11 Q. Staying with Morgan Stanley, you mentioned that Morgan
12 Stanley has two business lines?

13 A. Broadly, if you look at their financials, that's how they 14 characterize it, yes.

15 Q. And can you just explain, to the extent you understand,
16 what you mean by "business lines"?

17 A. Certainly. So, Morgan Stanley has a private wealth
18 management business, which is one of the aforementioned two 19 business lines. That business is composed of individuals who 20 somewhat confusingly are also called financial advisors, who 21 work with high net worth individuals to help them manage their 22 money.

23 And then the other business line that I was referring
24 to, which I was a part of, is called the institutional
25 securities division. And within that division is housed what

1 is the traditional investment banking activities, which is
2 capital markets, underwriting, so think about initial public
3 offerings, helping companies with that. Mergers and 4 acquisitions, when two companies merge, and then aside from 5 that, there's sales and trading, which is basically making
6 markets in various securities around the world, and also asset
7 management.

8 Q. You said business lines, but they're really separate
9 entities; is that correct?

10 A. They're all a part of the Morgan Stanley & Company LLC,
11 which is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, but we report
12 up through different superiors.

13 Q. You say "part of." Are they the same company? Are they a 14 separate entity?

15 A. They're wholly-owned subsidiaries of Morgan Stanley &
16 Company LLC.

17 Q. And you called it, I believe, wealth management. Is it
18 also referred to as the private bank?

19 A. I don't believe I have the expertise to answer that.

20 Q. I understand.

21 A. I could speculate, but...

22 Q. So you're not really familiar with anything that's handled
23 on the wealth management side, other than sometimes you have 24 clients referred?

25 A. I've never worked on the wealth management side, so I don't.

1 BY MS. SASSOON:

2 Q. Just to clarify, turning back to Exhibit 1-61, page 6, is
3 it clear to you one way or the other from looking at this
4 e-mail whether this is an asset-based lending proposal?

5 A. It's not clear to me, it would be speculation.

6 Q. Looking at page 7, going back to the part in blue with the 7 asterisk, can you read that, please?

8 A. 50 percent working interest owned by Black Sands Pacific
9 Alpha Blue, LLC.

10 MS. SASSOON: No further questions.

11 THE COURT: Okay. Any recross?

12 MR. STEINWASCHER: Very briefly, your Honor.

13 RE CROSS EXAMINATION

14 BY MR. STEINWASCHER:

15 Q. Can we go back to that same exhibit, same page?

16 Very briefly, Mr. Bonebrake. Did this proposal
17 provide you -- I say proposal, overview summary proposal, did
18 it provide you with really any information on which Morgan
19 Stanley could make a decision about financing?

20 A. To get to the point of actually, quote, making a decision
21 on financing, there would have been a lot more work and 22 information needed than this. Again, this was very preliminary
23 stage of our conversation.

24 MR. STEINWASCHER: Thank you.

25 THE COURT: Okay. You can step down. Thanks very

1 BY MR. STEINWASCHER:

2 Q. Did you have specific recollection as to your
3 conversations -- specific details of your conversations with 4 Mr. Brennerman prior to looking at the documents when meeting
5 with the government?

6 A. I had recollections of conversations with Mr. Brennerman
7 that were enhanced by looking at the documents. I did recall
8 the conversations before seeing the documents, but the 9 documents were very helpful.

10 Q. So, it's safe to say that for some specific details, your 11 memory was refreshed by the documents and not something that 12 you just remembered independently prior?

13 A. That's a broad statement. I'm not sure I could agree or 14 disagree with that, but...

15 Q. That's fine. That's fine.

16 On the topic of financing, you said that for these 17 types of deals, the ones that you have handled primarily, and 18 specifically the one involving Mr. Brennerman, Morgan Stanley
19 would not provide the money that it would seek financing from 20 outside investors; is that correct?

21 A. They would not typically provide the money. There are some 22 cases where Morgan Stanley -- let me rephrase that. I can only
23 speak for my particular division. So, Morgan Stanley is a
24 $700 billion company operating across the globe with over 25 50,000 employees. So my particular division would typically

HBTKBRE2

Bonebrake - Cross

1 not be providing the financing directly, but we might backstop
2 an offering where we commit that if we can't find third-party
3 investors to purchase these securities, then we would provide
4 the money. But that was not the majority of the cases.

5 Q. And in the particular case of the proposal from 6 Mr. Brennerman, I believe you said that it was something that 7 you understood he was looking for Morgan Stanley to find
8 financing from investors for?

9 A. My recollection was that it was unclear. We didn't get 10 very far in our discussions. And then, after reviewing the 11 emails, I think it's still unclear.

12 Q. You mentioned several times, I believe, a distinction
13 between dealing with public companies and private companies?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. At one point I believe you said your knowledge of the 16 number of private companies that are involved in this type of 17 business that you do, the oil and gas business, you're a little 18 less certain of the specific number because the information is 19 not publicly available; is that correct?

20 A. Correct.

21 Q. So, for a private company like Blacksands Pacific, it
22 wouldn't be unusual that you hadn't heard of them, given that 23 they're a private company, and you're not familiar with every 24 single private company out there?

25 A. It would be unusual that a company -- that I had not heard

HC48BRE4

Gonzalez - Cross

1 don't.

2 Q. If it had no depository accounts, would there be any reason
3 for it to need FDIC insurance?

4 A. I'm not certain.

5 Q. Does FDIC insurance cover anything else other than 6 depository accounts?

7 A. No.

8 Q. So if there is a company that has many different
9 sub-entities, some of those that hold depository accounts and 10 some of those that don't, a financial institution I should say,
11 it's safe to say the FDIC would only offer insurance to those 12 portions of the company that handle depository accounts?

13 A. You kind of lost me. Can you repeat that?

14 Q. If there is a financial institution that has one division
15 that covers investments and another division that covers
16 depository accounts, would the FDIC insure the division that 17 covers investment banking?

18 A. If it does not have a certificate of deposit insurance it
19 would not.

20 Q. If it had no depository accounts, there was no reason for 21 that institution to seek a certificate of insurance?

22 A. I can't opine on what someone would want to do, in terms of 23 seeking insurance or not seeking insurance.

24 Q. Well, there would be nothing for the FDIC to insure in that 25 instance, is that correct?

HC48BRE4

Gonzalez - Cross

1 Q. OK. I am not sure it's reflected on this page, but maybe
2 on the first page of this exhibit.

3 You see at the bottom here, on the bottom left, there
4 is an italicized text that reads "Morgan Stanley Smith Barney
5 LLC"?

6 A. It's hard for me to see.

7 Q. Do you see that text now?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Are you aware if Morgan Stanley Smith Barney LLC is insured
10 by the FDIC?

11 A. I'm not aware of that.

12 Q. Did you conduct any search to confirm that?

13 A. No.

14 Q. The rest of this text, it has "member SIPC." Do you see 15 that?

16 A. Yes.

17 Q. Are you familiar with that acronym SIPC?

18 A. I'm not familiar with that acronym.

19 Q. Does that, as far as you know, pertain to the FDIC in any 20 way?

21 A. No.

22 Q. Does the FDIC insure banks outside of the United States?

23 A. No.

24 Q. So if there is a bank located in London, in the United
25 Kingdom, that would not be covered by the FDIC?

HC48BRE4

Gonzalez - Cross

1 A. Not without a certificate of deposit insurance.

2 Q. I just want to clear this up. Your answer to my previous 3 question was the FDIC does not insure banks outside of the 4 United States..

5 A. A foreign bank?

6 Q. Correct.

7 A. No.

8 Q. So if there is a foreign bank located in London, even if it
9 held depository accounts, the FDIC could not insure it, is that
10 correct?

11 A. That is correct.

12 Q. I apologize for this. I want to go back to one point.

13 Those two Morgan Stanley banks that we looked at,
14 those two entities that had certificates of insurance with the 15 FDIC, if an entity is a subsidiary of a parent in a financial
16 institution, does the fact that the subsidiary is FDIC insured
17 also mean that the parent is FDIC insured?

18 A. Can you repeat that? I'm not sure I understand.

19 Q. Does FDIC insurance for a financial institution, which is a
20 subsidiary of another financial institution, so the FDIC has
21 issued a certificate to that subsidiary, does that certificate
22 somehow also cover the parent corporation?

23 A. No.

24 Q. So the parent entity would need a separate certificate of 25 insurance?

HC48BRE4

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. The same thing for an affiliate within a company or
3 affiliates between companies, each entity would require a
4 separate certificate of insurance in order to be FDIC insured?

5 A. That is correct.

6 MR. STEINWASCHER: We are just about approaching lunch
7 and I am done with this witness.

8 THE COURT: Any redirect?

9 MR. SOBELMAN: No, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Why don't we break then. We will pick up
11 at 2.

12 Don't discuss the case and bring your books with you
13 into the jury room, but don't take them outside of the jury
14 room. Have a good lunch.

15 All rise for the jury, please.

16 (Jury exits courtroom)

17 THE COURT: You can step down. Thank you very much,
18 Mr. Gonzalez.

19 Have a seat. Let's talk about what we have left and 20 an ETA.

21 MR. ROOS: We have six witnesses remaining, two of 22 them are on the longer side and the other ones are about the 23 length that some of these shorter witnesses have been today.
24 And we also have three stipulations to read into the record at 25 some point. We can do it right after lunch.

 New York, NY 10007

Re: United States v. Raheem J. Brennerman; No. 17 Cr. 337 (RJS)

Dear Judge Sullivan,

We write to address the issue raised today with respect to the production of certain documents. Specifically, we learned today that the notes of the Government's witness, Julian Madgett, pertaining to matters to which he testified, were not obtained by the Government, or provided to the defense. For the reasons detailed below, it is our position that the materials should have been produced pursuant to Fed. Rule Crim. P. 16 and the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500; in addition, the defendant is serving a subpoena on counsel for this witness, Paul Hessler, for their production and the production of other documents.

The Government has asserted that Mr. Madgett's notes -- made by the alleged victim and pertaining to the precise subject matter at issue in this trial -- are not in its actual "possession," and therefore it has no obligation to produce them. But possession is not so narrowly defined. Courts have required the Government to disclose evidence material to the defense where the Government "actually or constructively" possesses it. E.g., United States v. Joseph, 996 F.2d 36, 39 (3d Cir. 1993) ("The prosecution is obligated to produce certain evidence actually or constructively in its possession or accessible to it." (internal quotation marks omitted)); cf. Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419, 437 (1995) (holding that, to satisfy Brady and Giglio, prosecutors have "a duty to learn of any favorable evidence known to the others acting on the government's behalf in the case"). In particular, in United States v. Paternina-Vergara, the Second Circuit held that the Government had an obligation to make good faith efforts to obtain Jencks Act statements possessed by a third party that had cooperated extensively, and had a close relationship with, the Government. 749 F.2d 993 (2d Cir. 1984). And in United States v. Stein, the court directed the Government to produce documents in the actual possession of a third party, KPMG, because KPMG had voluntarily agreed to do so in an deferred prosecution agreement. 488 F. Supp. 2d 350, 361 (S.D.N.Y. 2007) (noting that the term "control" has been "broadly construed"); see also United States v. Kilroy, 488 F. Supp. 2d 350, 362 (E.D. Wis. 1981) ("Since Standard Oil is cooperating with the Government in the preparation of the case and is making available to the Government for retention in the Government's files any records which Standard Oil has and which the Government wants, however, it is not unreasonable to treat the records as being within the Government's control at least to the extent of requiring the Government to request the records on the defendant's behalf and to include them in its files for the defendant's review if Standard Oil agrees to make them available to the Government." (emphasis added)).¹

Here, there can be no question that Mr. Madgett and his employer, ICBC (London) plc ("ICBC"), are in a cooperative relationship with the Government. ICBC is the complainant and alleged victim in this case. Moreover, counsel for ICBC confirmed in the recent criminal contempt trial before Judge Kaplan that ICBC had voluntarily produced more than 5000 pages of documents at the mere request of the Government. And Mr. Madgett is voluntarily appearing as a Government witness. Given this close relationship, and one demonstrating extensive cooperation between Mr. Madgett, ICBC, and the Government, the Government had (and has) an obligation to obtain and produce to Mr. Brennerman materials required by Rule 16 and the Jencks Act. Yet, Mr. Madgett testified today that the Government never asked him for any notes.

Mr. Brennerman therefore moves this Court to direct the Government to request, at a minimum, Mr. Madgett's notes that pertain to the subject matter of this case and his testimony. This is especially necessary given the critical importance of such materials to this case and Mr. Brennerman's defense, as no documents have been produced to date that pertain to the critical issue of ICBC's decision-making process with respect to the loan it provided to Mr. Brennerman — i.e., the transaction at the very core of the Government's case.

Additionally, since Mr. Brennerman has been unable to obtain any such materials, and in light of Mr. Madgett's testimony, we are issuing a subpoena directly to ICBC, through its counsel Mr. Hessler, for these records and others.

We are prepared to address these issues at any time convenient to the Court.

¹ Courts have granted motions to dismiss an indictment where the Government fails to satisfy its discovery and disclosure obligations, either on the basis of a due process violation or under the court's inherent supervisory powers, including where the Government belatedly disclosed Jencks Act materials. E.g., United States v. Chapman, 524 F.3d 1073 (9th Cir. 2008).
